

Kensaku and Yasuko Takahashi,
Japan, 1967

My name is Kensaku Takahashi, and my wife is Yasuko Takahashi. We both joined in Japan in 1967 and came to America in 1973.

We joined when we were university students. I think if we talk about what we went through during the past 43 years, it could be an endless story. Instead, we would just like to express some of our thoughts.

We don't know how to express our gratitude to True Parents for connecting our lives with the mainstream of God's providence. Above all, we feel very lucky to be able to understand the love of God through True Parents, but at the same time, we feel deeply sorry for God and True Parents since they gave us so much blessing, yet we are so far away from their wish and still give them pain.

We try our best, with an unchanging heart and longing, to live together with the heart and love of God and True Parents eternally. Thank you so much.
