STF Europe 2014-2015 officially ended with a Commencement Ceremony in Sebenstein, Austria on the 2nd of August with about 80 STF family members in attendance. This year 31 participants out of 32 were there to celebrate the occasion.

Our newly appointed European Continental director Rev. Jack Corley gave the opening remarks and then various STF staff members including Seija Kunzig, David Perry and Hannes Thurner gave congratulatory messages.

Five of the STF members gave touching and honest testimonies at the ceremony. They shared about their challenges during the time in STF, how they overcame difficulties and could offer victory to our Heavenly Parent. Many tears were there throughout the ceremony.

S. Choi who led STF for 3 years is now stepping down will continue as an advisor to the new director, Deborah Cali from Italy. Deborah had earlier completed 3 years on STF and is an experienced team leader.
