

The Ocean Waterpark in Yeosu opens with extensive renewal construction

Yun Ki Choi
June 16, 2017

[The Asia Business Daily]

The Completely Revamped “The Ocean Waterpark in Yeosu” Will Open on June 17

Extensive renewal construction upon the 10th anniversary of The Ocean Waterpark’s opening.

Various discounts, colorful performances and balloons.

With the 10th anniversary since its opening, The Ocean Waterpark in Yeosu finished its extensive renewal construction, and from June 17, its indoor and outdoor waterparks will be opened at regular times.

According to The Ocean Resort, during the “Grand Opening” on June 17, the newly-equipped “Infinity Pool” at the outdoor waterpark, along with the new attractions, including “Cannonball,” “Children’s Pool” and “Kid’s Pool” in memory of the water cannon, will be opened to the public.

Most notably, the elaborately-prepared “Infinity Pool” faces the beautiful, vast Yeosu ocean, and as a facility introduced to allow the public to enjoy water-related activities, there are high expectations for it to emerge as a new “killer content.”

When the resort opens the “Infinity Pool” from June 19 to the 30, although there is usually a separate entrance fee, during this particular period, there will be limited-time event in which on the weekdays, the facility will be opened to the public free of charge.

In addition, on opening day on June 17, a colorful public performance will be held, and from June 19 to the 30, there will be an event in which the first ten entrees will receive a waterpark free pass, limited to once every weekday.

There will also be a discount event for the water park entrance fee, targeted for accompanying children, middle and high school students, as well as university students.

There will also be various giveaways via SNS, including Facebook, Instagram, Pholar and blogs...