Mid-afternoon on Sunday the 20th of August, Pastor Clair Daugherty ran a seminar with about 25 participants concerning the principle view of working with angels, and the historical, spiritual and biblical concepts. Topics covered our personal and subjective role to direct and influence them, support our activities, and providential duties in the physical realm. Discussion, questions and answers, covered topics such as the differences between angels and spirits, how to judge good and bad angels/spirits, directing them, biblical examples and True Father's words on the subject.

The book by Nora M. Spurgin's book "Circles of Angels, how you can call you own circle of angels to energise your life" were given out to participants.
