

HIGH-LEVEL POLITICAL FORUM ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Theme

Building back better from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) while advancing the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

HLPF SIDE EVENT 2022

PERMACULTURE: A UNIVERSAL,
HOPEFUL PRACTICE
FOR BUILDING BACK
BETTER

Discussing solutions to urgent environmental issues, inspiring global and community leaders in delivering concrete actions & implementing community-centered, regenerative food production systems as a way to build back better from COVID-19.

THURSDAY, JULY 7

7:30-9:00 AM EST

REGISTER: BIT.LY/HLPFWFWP22

Organized by Women's Federation for World Peace International

HLPF SIDE EVENT 2022 SPEAKERS

Building back better from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) while advancing the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Permaculture: A Universal, Hopeful Practice for Building Back Better

Dr. Sun Jin Moon

Senior Vice-President of WFWPI and Chairperson of Pacific Rim Education Foundation in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii since 2012. Dr. Moon graduated with a Baccalaureate in Psychology from Harvard University. Currently studying for a Masters in Spirituality, Mind and Body Psychology at Columbia University and has an honorary doctorate from Sun Moon University. In 2020, she founded the Giving for Good Project with WFWP to raise awareness and funds for WFWP Humanitarian activities while supporting the UN SDGs.

Dr. Judy Kuriansky

An internationally known clinical psychologist, humanitarian, author and United Nations NGO representative. A Professor of Psychology and Education, in the Department of Clinical Psychology at Columbia University. A UN NGO representative for the International Association of Applied Psychology and the World Council for Psychotherapy for 18 years. Partnered with the Ambassador of Palau for the successful historic inclusion of mental health and well-being in the UN Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development, and now advises the member state government Friends of Mental Health and Well-being.

Thursday, July 7

7:30-9:00 AM EST

Register @ bit.ly/hlpfwfwp22

HLPF SIDE EVENT 2022 SPEAKERS

Ms. Yani Dutta

An Architect, Entrepreneur, Permaculture designer and founder of The Regenes Project, a movement that aspires to lead large-scale efforts to heal and regenerate degraded ecosystems in the Philippines. She has worked at the Built Environment Research and Innovation Institute in the Building Construction Authority, in Singapore, where she led the development of industry standards, frameworks and training programs. She is currently formulating a framework for a regenerative development model through the Regenes Project.

DI Michaela Glatzl

Advisor for the Austrian Women Farmers' Working Group (AWFWG) in the Austrian Chamber of Agriculture. DI Michaela Glatzl is a Lecturer at the College for Agricultural and Environmental Education. As the Advisor of the AWFWG, she represents 130,000 women in agriculture and forestry. Since 1972, AWFWG offers strategic orientation, organizes and implements events and educational projects, promotes networking of women's organizations in Austria and at the international level, they represent the farmer women in various federal advisory councils for women farmers in Austria.

Mrs. Merly Barlaan

The Director of the WFWPI Office for UN Relations in New York. She is a peace and ecosystem restoration advocate, focusing on women, youth and community development, promoting a holistic approach to women's empowerment. Mrs. Barlaan was born and raised in a pristine farming village, in Bohol Philippines. She has played an active role in the United Nations NGO community for 25 years. Graduated with Bachelors in Education, Majored in Values Education, from the International Peace Leadership College, Rizal, Philippines.