

Blessing Information Day at the Peace Embassy 4th March 2017

Patrick Hanna

March 3, 2017

Everyone parents and children who are thinking about matching or blessing is welcome to attend the day. It is an information day and there is no commitment required. It is also a great opportunity to ask questions and learn from the experience and journey of others.

Patrick and Yebunys' main purpose will be to meet the 2nd generation who attend the day and lead separate brothers and sisters discussions. They will also give a talk in the afternoon on practical and internal preparation for Matching and Blessing.
