Mr. and Mrs. Jares invited CARP to their house and served dinner for them. He and his wife appreciated their witness effort and encouraged them to continue their effort.

Mr. Jares shared his testimony of how he joined the church and brought all CARP members into laughter, also He shared wisdom to them that how creativity and setting condition is important in witnessing .

They felt so loved and got ready to go into final exam week and final week to prepare guests to 5 days workshop which starts Dec 17th.
