Talk Title:

"Interfaith Cooperation, Central to Seeking Peace"

Dr. Frank
Kaufmann

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Frank Kaufmann has his doctorate in Religion from Vanderbilt University. He is director of the Inter-Religious Federation for World Peace, editor-in-chief and project leader of New World Encyclopedia, founder of the Values in Knowledge Foundation, and was editor-in-chief of the scholarly journal Dialogue and Alliance, raising it to receive awards and distinction from the American Theological Library Association (ATLA).

Dr. Kaufmann has worked in religion and conflict resolution for 40 years, at times in physical danger in violent environments. His missions have taken him to areas of conflict, including Israel and Palestine, Croatia, the Eritrea-Ethiopia border, India, Kashmir, revolutionary centers in the Philippines, the Arabian Gulf, and Sri Lanka.

He teaches World Religions, Church History, Religion and Conflict Resolution, and other courses both in New York and internationally. Dr. Kaufmann maintains a vigorous public speaking schedule on applied spiritual life, and peace and conflict resolution.
