

Los Angeles Unification Church Demonstrates in Support of Religious Freedom

Michael Leone

June 28, 1977

Members of the Los Angeles Church demonstrate in support of religious freedom on June 28, 1977. The rally was highlighted by a speech by state director Michael Leone, an enactment of an anti "deprogramming" act and a petition signed by 53 parents of members asking the district attorney to investigate "deprogramming" groups for "criminal conspiracy to commit kidnapping, false imprisonment, assault and battery and denial of constitutional and civil rights."