

Are you worried about the future...?

Do you ever find yourself thinking...?

- ▶ "I feel powerless to stop our cultural slide..."
- ▶ "It seems like we're falling apart — everyone against everyone else..."
- ▶ "I want to make a difference — but where to start?"
- ▶ "Where are the people who think like me?"

If so, please know you are not alone. Join us for a stimulating and thought-provoking evening of networking and discussion with friends and neighbors. Come discover new insights into the ways people who embrace freedom, faith, family, service and citizenship can work together to make a difference.

Restoring America's Culture From the Neighborhood to the Nation

Wednesday, December 17th, 2014, 7:00 - 9:00 PM
Bowie Public Library — Main Auditorium
15210 Annapolis Road, Bowie, MD 20715

Special Guest Speaker:

Tom McDevitt
Chairman, The Washington Times

Sponsored by: The Washington Times Foundation and the Family Federation of Maryland

Please bring a friend — we're building a network of concerned people to make a difference together

No charge but seating is limited
RSVP: 202-669-0387