

UPF and IAPP's Africa Summit for Peace, Security and Development Planned

Tom McDevitt
December 26, 2017

The First Africa Summit for Peace, Security and Sustainable Development, with the theme “New Africa: Interdependence, Co-Prosperity and Universal Values” is being held on January 17-19, 2018 in Dakar, Senegal, with the support of the State of the Republic of Senegal, under the presidency of His Excellency Macky Sall, and support of the National Assembly of Senegal, headed by Hon. Moustapha Niasse.

The Africa Summit is organized by the Universal Peace Federation (UPF) and the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP) to serve as the framework to promote the ideals of peace, unity, solidarity and good governance advocated by our global movement of Ambassadors for Peace.

