Participation in the Festival of Lights

The Festival of Lights (in French: Fête des Lumières) in Lyon, France expresses gratitude toward Mary, mother of Jesus on December 8 of each year. This tradition dictates that every house place candles along the outsides of all the windows to produce a spectacular effect throughout the streets. With over four million tourists coming to Lyon for this event.

On the evening, we could participate in the pilgrimage going from the Cathedral to the Basilica of Fourvière.

After, we had a nice dinner with several of the guest.
