Just to let you know that the broadcast will go out at 2pm this Monday, [the program is called: "People, Passion and Purpose"], and will also be loaded up as a podcast afterwards, so it will be available for 30 days afterwards on the Swindon 105.5 website.

Unfortunately I didn't have enough space to fit all the Nepalese music I was given in to the programme, but have put some of it in between the talks, so you will hear some beautiful Nepalese music!

John and Ginger Nicholls are talking about their time as missionaries in Nepal from 1997 to 2011. Ginger has written a book called: "The Kalki Avatar -Tears for Nepal", which is available from www.lulu.com or Amazon. The book explains in great detail about their time there.

This recording hopes to bring the message that we are all instruments of peace, and believe in a unified world where all religions and cultures can live in harmony.

Listen in and be inspired! Available as Podcast for until the end of the month (Feb 2018)
