

WFWP Madrid, Spain's Round Table about Gender Ideology

Marcia De Abreu Rodrigues

February 24, 2018

On February 24th, an event on Gender Ideology and Education took place, organized by the Women's Federation for World Peace Spain, in Madrid.

Alicia Rubio, who is a member of Professionals for Ethics, collaborates with its educational department, doing research on the Gender Ideology and its consequences on society was one of the speakers.

Yobana Carril, lawyer and founder of a Law Bureau, an expert on gender violence and family was the other speaker.

Both gave light to the strategy used by those influenced by the Gender Ideology especially in the environment of the schools.

More than 60 people coming from a variety of places in Spain attended the conference showing a clear interest in learning about the topic.

Their speeches are available on www.wfwp-spain.org and on Asociación de Mujeres por la Paz Mundial facebook.
