Call for Applications for Pastor of Chicago Congregation

Bruce Sutchar
August 14, 2013

The Chicago Family Church has an opening on our ministerial team!

We are seeking a full-time, inspiring and personable Pastor who enjoys relating to members of all age groups.

Our church community of approximately 200 families has a rich history guided by the Divine Principle, with diverse and active members.

The new pastor must have strong leadership skills and be passionate about serving as spiritual leader with an emphasis on cultivating membership and nurturing our existing families and youth.

Salary will be commensurate with experience.

Please reply by email to the Chicago Local Council.

Please include contact information. All replies will be kept confidential.
