On November 26, the Kona Family Church brought together people from 11 different faiths, including Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism, Islam and the New Age movement for a musical Thanksgiving celebration!

More than 200 people gathered at the Lutheran Church of Kona in Hawaii to enjoy a variety of performances. The celebration featured a musical performance by Masa Matsuzaki, a young Unificationist, who inspired the audience with his talent.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Kona Family Church shared a Thanksgiving Dinner with friends and neighbors in the community.
