Well, we experienced the heavenly tsunami that is Dr. Chung Sik Yong. He was only here for 3 days and 3 days in LA but he brought with him a strong whirlwind of activities. He spoke at BAFC on Tuesday night and got inspired. Consequently, he had a lot more to share than I expected.

Anyone who would like to share any reflection with Dr. Yong about his visit or about Morning Devotion or anything else please do so. If you send it to me I can share it with him.

Dr. Yong was especially inspired to see our young people sing and dance and also those who received the certificate for having read the 1-hour DP 100x.

We went to Twin Peaks where we almost got blown off the hillside, Golden Gate Bridge, and then visited with Amos Brown. He and I had the chance to discuss many things together and make plans for the further. When you spend a week with someone every day you get to see what they are really like and I was impressed with Dr. Yong who is the real deal.

Last week we had our Community of Faith breakfast and it was our first in-person breakfast in a long time. Please see the report and pictures under ACLC.

God Bless
