Brothers and sisters,

This is shaping up to be an amazing weekend with True Mother now in Las Vegas.

She is meeting with clergy on Saturday at IPEC and I know that she is excited about this meeting.

As you remember, it was in Las Vegas, Dec 17th 2014 when Mother first publicly revealed to clergy that she is the Only Begotten Daughter.

She received such a positive response that Mother was deeply encouraged at that time.

We await what she will reveal this time.

Then on Sunday 800+ young people will welcome True Mother and let her know that she has the unity of our young people in America.

It promises to be a spectacular gathering.

Whether you are there in person, or not, please pray to uplift Mother and our American movement.

God Bless,

Kevin and Masako Thompson
