

True Mother: celebrate the birth of Jesus (and have a bloody good time)

Brothers and sisters,

Christmas is almost upon us and True Mother has asked that we celebrate the birth of Jesus well.

We can educate about the true meaning of Jesus' birth and life in a way that only those who know True Parents teachings can do.

She also asked that we have a bloody good time (OK, OK that is my words) and lots of fun befitting a great birthday party.

So, let's get to it.

God Bless,

Kevin and Masako Thompson
