Divine Principle & Chess

Robert James Fischer (March 9, 1943 – January 17, 2008) was an American chess grandmaster and the eleventh World Chess Champion.

The match for the world title between defender Boris Spassky Soviet Union and Bobby Fischer USA was p

It received a lot of media attention and was presented as match between the individual Fischer and the Soviet collective.

Fischer won ending 24 years of Soviet domination in World Cup chess.

In the early 60's Bobby Fischer became interested in the "Worldwide Church of God" led by the charismatic American Herbert Armstrong (1960 the year of True Parents' wedding&Blessing)

Was he prepared for Unification Church, True Parents and the Blessing ... maybe.

He did not want sex because he was not married. He mocked worldly life and pornography, and he tried carefully to follow the 10 commandments of God.

Herbert Armstrong prophesied the return of the Messiah in 1972,
(interesting timing in 1972 the Lord of the Second Advent Sun Myung Moon started his mission in United States).

Bobby died 2008, aged 64.
A chessboard has 64 squares.

Another famous person Elvis Presley had Divine Principle book v.1973 on his book table in his home Graceland.

Prepared for supporting True Parents in the 70s
- maybe...

Japanese members in USA tried to arrange for Elvis to come to Japan and perform at church rallies.
