

Celebration of United Nations International Yoga of Day in India

Krishna Adhikari
June 21, 2015

By UPF India,: From this year, United Nations has declared the UN International day of Yoga to be celebrated on 21st June every, which was proposed by H. E. Narendra Modi, Prime Minister of India. To commemorate this UN Day, UPF-India & FFWPU-India organized the programs in two places of India.

1. 7 -Day Yoga Training and Character Education Camp: This was organized like the summer camp for the school and college students. Around 30 Students attended the camp. We also had invited an Ambassador for Peace and Director of School of Social Sciences from Indira Gandhi National Open University Professor Darvesh Gopal for the distribution of certificate during the graduation ceremony of the camp.
2. UPF-India supported the UN Yoga Day celebration at Chennai city of Tamil Nadu State, which was organized by various faith based and social organization.

