

UPF and IAPP New Delhi, India's Peace Talks Examines the COVID-19 Situation

Krishna Adhikari
August 1, 2020

New Delhi, India -- UPF and the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP) of India hosted a "Peace Talks" webinar on August 1, 2020, on the theme, "COVID-19 and Beyond: Challenges and Opportunities in a Changing World." More than 390 people participated in the online event: 93 through Zoom and over 300 through Facebook Live.

Featured as speakers were seven current parliamentarians from India; Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal, chair of UPF- and IAPP-Asia Pacific; and Amb. K.V. Rajan, a retired diplomat and former member of the Indian Foreign Service and chairman of UPF-India.

The parliamentarians were Hon. Bhubaneswar Kalita, who is also the chairman of IAPP-South Asia; Hon. Tiruchi Siva; Hon. Dr. L. Hanumanthaiyah; Hon. K. Somaprasad; Hon. Dr. Banda Prakash; Hon. K. Ravindra Kumar; and Hon. N. Gokulakrishnan.

Veteran journalist and Ambassador for Peace Mr. Devsagar Singh, together with Mr. Neeraj Bajpai, wrote a detailed report of the webinar for their digital news platform, NewsAbode.com, which can be accessed by clicking here.

Mr. Krishna Adhikari, secretary general of UPF-India, served as the moderator.