FFWPU India in alignment with the FFWPU International calling for worship innovation has launched a Youth Service on March 24th calling it as the Gathering of Friends for Peace which was attended by more than 150 Youth and FFWPU Members around Capital of India in New Delhi including the Members of Parliament, Assemblyman, Academicians and Social Workers.

Program began with the water of harmony and peace pledge by the youth representatives of different religions. The National Leader of FFWPU India shared the message from the True Mother's Memoir Mother of Peace as the Peace Message of the program. Our event was organized by the active Peace Club Leaders and Volunteers of Delhi University.

In the Program the Cash Prize and Trophy was presented to the Winner of the Speech Competition held on the topic of "Purpose of Life". The Competition was organized prior to the Youth Service launching and the winner was declared not only evaluating the speech performance and content of speech but also the YouTube views, comments and likes of the contestant's video uploaded in the two YouTube Channel Krishna Adhikari Official and Peace Movement operated by FFWPU India.

The speech competition followed by peace worship service will be organized every month regularly and in the name of Youth for Service the Youth and Students will be inspired to visit to teach and support the underprivileged children of slums around Delhi.
