

Brazil's first meeting of Interfaith Association for Peace and Development (IAPD)

Simao Feraboli
March 14, 2019

As a first meeting of Interfaith Association for Peace and Development we have the idea of starting with the heads of the congregation or with the independent churches and also the mosque leaders and as a first meeting the title that peace comes through the harmony of the religious leaders. This title touch their heart and motive them to come together in unity.

Especially the report of Dr. Simao Feraboli on the 2019 summit has shown the unceasing efforts of the universal peace Federation throughout the world.

Everyone promised the next meeting to make an effort not only to publish but to be a member of this work for universal peace.
