

UPF Brazil's afternoon tea meeting for Peace Ambassadors at HQ in Sao Paulo

Simao Neudir Feraboli
April 12, 2019

UPF Brazil in partnership with WFPW and FFWPU, held an afternoon tea meeting for Peace Ambassadors on April 12th, 2019 at National Headquarters, Sao Paulo.

The aim was to present a retrospective of the 2019 and 2018 activities, as well to plan activities for this year to prepare and contact VIPs for the grand event of the Summit 2020 in South Korea at the celebration of the centenary of True Father.

President Koichi Sasaki welcomed and thanked all peace ambassadors for the great effort made last year to support the events surrounding the coming of the True Mother to Brazil. He also asked forgiveness for faults on our part.

There were 33 Peace Ambassadors. Some of them also expressed their gratitude for the participation of the activities carried out. WFPW President Ms. Onan also thanked the Peace Ambassadors for the achievements of WFPW last year and motivated them to continue their efforts to expand peacebuilding activities.

During the event, guests enjoyed an afternoon tea.

