To support the various exhibitions about True Parents' life and works that are going on around Europe, we created a series of four evening online presentations on the life and works of Sun Myung Moon and Hak Ja Han over one month time.

The first event took place on Tuesday, November 10, and brought together over 120 participants.

The main lecturer is Dr. David Hanna from the UK.

We received lots of good feedback and we hope to spread the good news about True Parents and inspire the participants to research more about our movement!
