On December 1st, we finished our 4-week cycle of True Parents' Life Course online presentations.

We can say that it was a success because we received a lot of good feedback.

One member even brought fourteen guests to it.

The average attendance was usually over hundred people.

The last lecture was more focused on True Mother's life course and her recent activities. The lecturer was Dr. David Hanna from the UK.

We think that these presentations were very important to witness about True Parents, especially to new people that are joining our online events and need to understand more about who True Parents are
