

Nigeria: Widow's Empowerment Program

George M. Ogurie
November 23, 2015

WFP Nigeria, Gbemisola Olorunfunmi: Women Federation for World Peace launches Widows Empowerment Program in partnership with Access Bank PLC on November 23, 2015 at the Covenant Church, Ajegunle Road, Area 1, Mpape with 140 widow's in attendance.

The event started with opening remarks and introduction to the Vision, Mission and general activities of Women's Federation for World Peace – Nigeria by President, Ms. Gbemisola Olorunfunmi in her welcome address, she reiterated the importance of the messiah and significance of the blessing as well invited them for the forthcoming blessing and clearly explains entrepreneurship through empowerment from the principles perspective and encourages the widow's to wisely embrace this opportunity.

Mr. Edward of Access Bank PIC inform the widow's about the benefit of the scheme which WFP has facilitated for them and how they can contribute immensely to the socio – economy of this great country through this soft loan scheme and become employers of labor and asked them to fill an account opening form to kick start the process of empowerment.

