

CARP USA 2018 Year In Review - Teresa Rischl - February 4, 2019

2018 Year In Review

Founder's Words

“The rise or fall of a nation depends on the young people of that nation. We are conducting national university student training for the sake of the spiritual formation of those students. We have to prepare the proper environment for the students to sprout and grow.”

*Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han
Moon*

CARP Las Vegas

CARP Las Vegas: Let's Talk about

Sex

Both Spring and Fall Semester, CARP Las Vegas hosted Campus Talks on its two campuses, College of Southern Nevada and University of Nevada, Las Vegas, on the topic of sexual morality.

Guests who are experts in the field were invited to speak on the topics.

CARP LV made t-shirts to publicize their event with great success.

Fall: Sexual Integrity and the Breakdown of the Family

CARP Las Vegas Retreats

CARP Las Vegas hosts two opportunities for members to dig deeper with Unification Principles and bond as a family.

1. 2 Day Monthly Divine Principle Retreats
2. Once a semester 7 Day Divine

1. October 2-Day Retreat
2. November 2-Day Retreat

CARP LA

CARP LA: Cypress Colloquium

On October 12, CARP Cypress hosted over 80 students, faculty, and pastors on campus to bridge the relationship between professor and student.

Packed with inspiring speeches, presentations, and performances, it was an unforgettable event.

CARP North Lake

CARP North Lake makes “The Wave”

CARP Dallas had a dream to reach out beyond their campus and inspire other students.

They created a new program, “The Wave”, in September for students to gather and experience CARP’s Principles.

Activity-based and interactive, the Wave is incredibly successful.

Midwest

Midwest Retreat:

Collaboration with Grand Rapids, Indiana, and Chicago

The Midwest chapters held two retreats this year: one in May (pictured above) and one in December (pictured below).

They had guest speakers give an in-depth presentation about the Principle and did activities.

CARP Utah

CARP Utah Summer Divine Principle Retreat

Inspired by summer's programs and retreats, CARP Utah President Alicia Kuhlmann and the Utah team planned a retreat for their community in August.

Full Story here.

CARP and HARP Utah Winter Retreat

On December 28th and 29th, the CARP and HARP chapters in Salt Lake City, Utah, hosted a two-day retreat focusing on the theme, Living a Principled Life.

Presentations were given by local CARP and HARP leaders.

Club Fair

Tabling

At the beginning of every semester, CARP chapters host a table to recruit new members and share about CARP.

Regular Programming

CARP Talks

Every week, local chapters hosted meetings on campus and discussed Principle and application.

Evening Programs

Chapters also hosted longer evening programs (usually monthly or biweekly) to dig deeper and do fun activities.

Ex) Ignite, Vision Night, The Wave

Socials

CARP chapters also invested into the relationships with their members by hosting various social gatherings throughout the semester.

Chapter Firsts

CARP Chicago Tribe Talks

CARP Chicago hosted Tribe Talks three times a month starting this past Fall Semester. Engaging people of their community and their student peers, they have become very popular.

CARP IUPUI 's First

CARP Meeting

3. Partnerships

Peace Starts with Me

November 12, 2018

Rally for Peace with over 200 congregations and 20,000 people

Student Volunteers

CARP NJIT full time students volunteered their time to help the rally efforts by participating in church outreach weekly, inviting them to the rally.

For the event itself, CARP members from across the country came in support and also performed during the program.

ACLC

Whether it was working for the Peace Starts With Me rally in November or teaming up locally in Los Angeles to host Revival Starts With Me events, CARP students volunteered for the American Clergy Leadership Conference \(ACLC\).

CARP, also sharing the values of interreligious unity and interdenominational cooperation, is a perfect fit for supporting ACLC's activities and events.

CARP LA held two events with ACLC this year:

April 7: Revival Starts With Me

The Summit

August 16 - 19

Hosted by YAYAM, the Summit gave an opportunity for CARP staff, Board of Directors, and student leaders to meet and make plans for the upcoming semester.

University of Bridgeport (UB): Interfaith Forum

CARP UB volunteered at Unification Campus Ministry's interfaith forums. Four different faith leaders, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, and Unificationist, gave their faith's perspective on the topic.

A Q&A session was also held afterwards for students to ask questions.

Branding

Starting Fall Semester, we released a brand new logo with standard colors.

This logo was adapted from our classic logo and selected because it represents a worldwide youth movement.

New Website on SquareSpace

This year, we transferred from WordPress to SquareSpace.

With a brand new look, we're reflecting the CARP of the modern age.

<https://www.carplife.org/>

Social Media

Keep up with CARP activities on the go.

This year we've improved our activity and usage on both our Facebook page and Instagram

account,

We also have a Facebook group to stay in contact with our student leaders.

Stay tuned for an even better 2019!
