

Interfaith Peace Blessing Festival in Warichaphum Thailand

Kamol Thananopavarn
December 25, 2015

By FFWPU Thailand: On December 25, 2015 Dr. Lek Thaveetermsakul tribal group organized Blessing at Warichaphum High School Auditorium, Warichaphum district, Sakon Nakhon province, Northeast of Thailand. There were 210 families participate with the support from government and community leaders for mobilization and venue.

All participants received Lecture of Divine Principle and Significance of Blessing. Mr. Settha Boonsanga, Deputy Chief of Warichaphum district gave opening remark and Dr. and Mrs. Lek Thaveetermsakul served as officiator represent True Parents

All participants were so inspired and deep impression in the teaching of True Parents and Blessing ceremony. Most of them will do 40 days separation and 3 days ceremony. Sub-district directors, government leaders and community leaders want to support the future FFWPU project in Warichaphum district.

