FFWPU Israel: HTM Activities

This month, the HTM department in Israel continued visiting families to connect and educate our members, through the distribution of True Mother's memoir, and teaching about the value of the Cheon Shim Won Prayer Room.

FFWPU Lebanon: Home Group

In accordance with True Mother's directions, FFWPU national leader couple, started investing again in home group activities. Their trinity home group focuses on reading and reflecting on True Mother's Memoir and learning more about True Parents. All participants are moved by the words and feel that through the home group activity we can develop and expand with time.

Witnessing Activities

FFWPU Lebanon: Witnessing Activities

This month was very busy for witnessing in Lebanon! Our volunteers are witnessing on the streets, using a questionnaire to invite people to hear about True Parents and the Divine Principle. The invited people come to the Peace Embassy, and every week the volunteers present introductory lectures about our movement, True Parents and the Divine Principle.

FFWPU Lebanon: 1-day Divine Principle Workshop

FFWPU Lebanon continues to focus on witnessing and educating new members, so organized a one Day Divine Principle workshop for new members. The new guests could listen to lectures about the Divine Principle, the Blessing and True Parents' life course. The guests were very impressed by True Parents' Life course and investment for humanity and expressed their desire to learn more in the future.

UPF Lebanon: Ambassadors for Peace Award

On this month, UPF Lebanon gave 3 new Ambassador of Peace certificates, together with Amb. Sam Zakhem, who came to visit Lebanon from the U.S. 2 of them are business leaders, and one is a principal of a high school. They received the certificate because of the charitable work they do in various ways.

UPF Lebanon: Interfaith Meeting

UPF Lebanon organized an Interreligious Meeting where 13 religious leaders from the Muslim and Christian Faith attended. After the opening remarks and presentations about the Inter Faith program and True Parents, all the leaders present were sharing ideas of how to strengthen the Interreligious harmony and collaboration among the various religions.

WFPW Jordan: Mothers Classes

During the month of June, WFPW Jordan conducted lectures for mothers. The youth were teaching topics around the theme "How to build an ideal family" with the latest lecture being "How to bring happiness to your spouse". The mothers are very inspired to continue learning and to practice the teachings in their daily lives.

YSP Lebanon: Cultural Events (Japanese games and Jordanian culture)

To promote peace and unity between countries, YSP Lebanon continues to hold intercultural events and this month two were held: a Japanese traditional game event, where the participants could experience games from Japan; and a Jordanian cultural event, that showcased the culture and history of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan.

YSP Jordan: Eid El Adha Food Donation

This week, the youth from YSP Jordan prepared and distributed 22 packages of food for families in need near Rusaifa, in Jordan. With the funds provided by the Jordanian national leader, the team was able to visit the families and give them food to help celebrate the Eid El Adha.

YSP Lebanon Activities

This month, YSP Lebanon is continuing the Holy Ground cleaning activity near the Pidgeon Rocks. Over the last few weeks, our volunteers were joined by YSP members, and sometimes even by people passing by the place. This project started in March this year, and after four months of hard work, the Holy Ground is beginning to look much better, to the point where even the sea turtles greet us now!
