  - “What does it mean that God never had a chance to act as a parent? It means tha God and human beings have not been able to achieve an equal level. We have to advocate for the rights of God. What good are talks of quality and freedom when we are unable to interact with our Creator? Human beings have to experience divine spirituality in order to be able to stand on an equal footing with God. God’s work of restoration finally will come to an end when God and every human being can unite and sing songs of joy in the universe of freedom. This is the hope of humankind as well.” —Sermons, 11-24, 1960.12.11

  - “When I started a church, tears never stopped falling from my eyes. It was so strenuous. While I was praying for 400 family members, calling each name, I already knew someone was healed. I called and asked him whether such and such things happened, then the answer was “Yes.” I prayed, calling all the names of my family members. Before I call their names, I see them in my head already. It takes 40 minutes just to call out all the names. They may appear with a smiling face, an anxious face and so on. So I knew what had happened to everyone.” [True Parents’ Walk of Life 3.-3. Raising Families with Blood, Sweat, and Tears]
