Human Rights Day is an important date worthy of organizing an educational evening. On Monday, UPF hosted a multi-faceted presentation by the Scientology Church.

The event was dedicated to Human Rights Article No. 1, which says, “All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should treat one another in a spirit of brotherhood”.

Thus, the first lecturer (Václav Paul) spoke about “Psychiatry and Violations of Human Dignity” and related activities.

The second speaker (Miro Lopusný) introduced the educational project “Human Rights and Youth” designed for teachers in 100 schools in Slovakia.

The third lecturer (Štefan Lopusný) explained why and how “The Road to Happiness” benefits everyone, especially in conflict-ridden communities.

Our Scientology friends presented materials such as video films, posters, brochures, etc. All three presentations were enlightening; the lecturers impressed the audience (28) with their professionalism.

In the end, our guest speakers and their friends had the opportunity for a relaxed exchange in our Peace Embassy.
