

ACLA New York: Invitation to ACLC Conference Monthly Prayer Breakfast

Bruce Grodner
March 24, 2019

Dear Friend of Faith and Family,

You are cordially invited to attend the American Clergy Leadership Conference Monthly prayer breakfast on Saturday, March 30, 2019 at the Castle Royale, 92 Waverly St. Yonkers, NY 10701

The American Clergy Leadership 'conference is an interfaith and interracial coalition of faith leaders working together beyond denomination to strengthen marriages and families, redeem communities and renew our nation. ACLC ministers share the vision that America should be an example to the world showing how all people can live together as one family under God.

We are delighted to have Rev. Dr. Rupert Clarke as our keynote speaker. He is the Pastor of Central Yonkers Church of God.

Reverend Dr. Clarke is a dynamic, thought provoking minister with a broad range of interests and a tremendously creative approach to ministry.

The ACLC prayer breakfasts provide a great opportunity to network, share sermon topics and encourage each other.

The program begins at 9:30 and ends at 12:30. Come and join the festivity and fellowship with some really awesome people. We look forward to meeting you there Saturday 30, 2019.

Sincerely,

Rev. E.J. Loftin-Woods. Pastor, Kingdom Within

Rev. Nagi Yousef, Arabic Baptist Church

Rev. Bruce Grodner Executive Director ACLA NY

Julia Okamoto ACLC Coordinator, Westchester and Rockland NY
