October 15, 2016

Fifteen guests, including ministers and their families, attended an incredible Marriage Seminar titled No Fault Marriage and Family Solution on Saturday, October 15, 2016. It was led by Dr. Jean and Illay Kasongo as part of their Tribal Messiah ministry in Georgia.

The six speakers, including Bishop James Anderson, Mr. Edward and his wife Lt. Colonel Tiffany Sneed, and second generation Unificationist Iris Scattergood, spoke about the importance and preparation of purity before marriage. They also expressed the fundamental importance of character development within marriage by utilizing God's original principles of creation for a man and a woman.

The event provided a refreshing opportunity to connect and share principles that can help build strong and healthy families.
