It is Nomination time for the upcoming Belvedere Family Church Council election.

Every year, 4 new members are elected to serve on the BFC council. First, though, we need to receive nominations of members who you think would be good candidates to serve as council representatives.

You may nominate up to 4 persons run in the election for the Council. All you need to do is think of a few people you feel would be good representatives from our community, then enter from 1 to 4 names on the online form.

You may nominate yourself as well if you would like to serve!

Each nominee will be contacted prior to the election to find out if they are willing and able to serve.
