

Rwanda: Christian Pastors Wish to Know and Teach the Divine Principle

Futila Michel
October 29, 2015

By FFWPU Rwanda: We have a 7-days workshop once a month from May 2015 with average of 30 participants (youth and adults). Also we have several 2-Day seminar every month, in which we invite people from different districts and countryside to attend Divine Principle seminars at our headquarters church.

Pastors who participated in our seminars, witness to their people in their local areas about Divine Principle and the coming of True Parents. Such as Town of Rubavu, West Rwanda, Area of Gahini, East of Rwanda, Nyaruguru Church, South of Rwanda, Area of Musanze North of Rwanda. Rukomo town East of Rwanda Rwimishinya area East of Rwanda.

In This way, we are receiving good responses from Pastors of 8 different churches who have attended our seminars.

Most pastors are leading an average of 70 adults' congregation in their churches and 4 pastors have allowed us to use all opportunity available to teach Divine Principle to the leaders in their churches.

Three pastors have offered their congregation to be educated in Divine Principle and now all the participants included pastor wish to follow Unification Church traditions.

We are receiving more requests from Pastors who want to attend Divine Principle lectures with the desire to teach to their congregations.

