Greetings friends of Religious Freedom,

The International Media Association for Peace (IMAP) invites you to be a webinar panelist and speak on the theme of Religious Freedom and the Media.

Please refer to the article by Katrina Lantos Swett "An Orphaned Right," in which she calls for "religious freedom for everyone, everywhere, all the time," at the third International Religious Freedom Summit, co-hosted by UPF and the Washington Times Foundation.

IMAP webinars take place on the last Tuesday of each month from 2 to 3 pm EDT. The format is that the guest panelist offers opening remarks of 10 to 12 minutes in length, followed by a collegial roundtable discussion among the panelists and moderator.

Here are links to a few previous webcasts, including our monthly webcasts of The Washington Brief to give you a good sense of the look and feel of our discussions:
