

407 Attend Liberia's Two-Day Divine Principle and True Family Value Workshop

Pamela Moore Mwanga
November 10, 2018

On November 10, 2018 two days divine principle and true family value workshop was held for 407 participants and among them 66 couples participated in the blessing ceremony, which was conducted at the Jesus the morning star evangelical ministry church in Bomi County, Liberia.

The blessing ceremony officiated by Rev. Murphy Browne's family heads of city of refuge mission family church, who mobilized the pastors in Bomi county. The blessing ceremony was witness by reverend, pastors, paramount chief, governor and well-wishers.

The paramount chief of swen district thanked family federation for bringing the divine principle to them, which have inspired them so much. He also asked us to extend his thanks and appreciation to true parents for their effort to ensured that the divine principle teaching reached to all part of the world which he believe will bring about a world of peace. He promised to mobilized all the chiefs to receive the divine principle lecture and blessing.

