

We give thanks for the ACLC National Executive Board

Bayo Adrien
November 15, 2013

We give thanks for the ACLC National Executive Board, (pictured) District and Local Leadership Teams of the American Clergy Leadership Conference around the USA, Chaired by Archbishop and Patriarch G. Augustus Stallings did a marvelous job in bringing us together in Las Vegas, Nevada, for our 2013 National Convocation, Nov 12 - 15.

We came together for divine fellowship, divine equipping, with tools for understanding the scriptures, human beings original purpose, God's original desire for us to live as brothers and sisters with the same Christ like Anointing' Jesus and all other Noble Saints, Sons and Daughters of God, like Mother Theresa, possessed and demonstrated in their legacies they left behind.

By affirming family and happy, principled love marriages, as cornerstones and primary credentials, required for Ambassadorship for God's Kingdom Building.

Working as one for one goal, we came together expressing our unique creative affirmation of faith and confidence, in the peaceful advancing of the Kingdom of God through True Parents' Vision2020.

Please join us Sat, Nov. 23 at Christian Love Baptist Church, 818 Bladensburg Rd. Washington DC 20002 9:00 am -12:00 noon Unity In Community Prayer Breakfast.