

Emmanuel Allognon's speaking tour in Benin to encourage Blessed Families

Emmanuel Allognon

March 18, 2018

After Benin's participation in major events in February 2018 in Korea, the National Leader of Benin Rev. Emmanuel ALLOGNON and his wife began a speaking tour in the Benin to inspire and encourage blessed families to fulfill their responsibility as heavenly Tribal Messiahs and actively participate in the realization of the Vision 2020 as a crucial and urgent task.

After the northern part of the country at Parakou from March 17th to 18th, 2018 with 46 participants, they travelled to the Atlantic and Littoral (Cotonou and around) from March 24th to 25th, 2018 with 60 participants at the Peace Embassy.

Reflection

One of participants said: The Blessed Families have determined themselves and made resolutions in the framework of the activities of Heavenly Tribal Messiah.
