

International Day of Peace

Lyon, France, 20. September 2017

By Jean-Paul Chaudy

Around ten leaders of local NGOs met at the Espace Culture & Paix in Lyon, in order to celebrate this year's International Day of Peace.

Mr. Jean-Paul Chaudy, president of ELAP presented five core values of Peace Ambassadors.

Mr. Christopher Kamamba of the Espace Culture & Paix presented the Peace Road project.

Mr. Jacques Lyant, secretary of ANAN and member of AFRICA 50 spoke about the life of the Nomadic Fula People in Western and Central Africa. He received the Ambassador for Peace Award at the occasion. He has worked 34 years in the fields of education and conciliation in Africa. He prepares now to go to Colombia, country which recently signed peace treaties. There, he will represent our region in an event linked to the celebration of the year France-Colombia.

