

Two bridges completed at Natural Animals Zoo

Reported by Mr. Date
Translation by KA & JT

It has been raining since August 13th with 55 millimeters total precipitation. The water level is going down gradually. Mr. Maekawa and Mr. Toyomura arrived in the evening of the 17th by Akita Van. Preparations for welcoming the Youth Volunteers to Olimpo and Leda are in full progress.

Mr. Toyomura and Mr. Maekawa arrived in Leda at night.

Mr. Nakata and workers are building the second bridge in the Natural Animals Zoo.

Mr. Ueyama is busy with management of ponds for aquaculture of pacu fish, production of drinking water, and management of labor and bookkeeping.

Right: Mr. Ueyama is cutting payroll checks.

Mr. Ohwada is cleaning the gutter in front of the tool room. He will leave for Japan with Mr. Nakamura on the 25th.

Cleaning the pool is an important daily job. This is Carlo.

Piling grass fertilizer at the first farm.

Taro is growing naturally by a fish pond.

Victor is cutting weeds in the neem forest.

Benita and her daughter Augustina are cooking our meals.

