

Mr. Carlos is receiving the Divine Principle from the pastor of Olimpo Family Church.

Reported by Date

Translated by: KA & JY

The Chairman of the Council of Olimpo, Mr. Juan Carlos, attended a lecture given by Pastor Gavilan at Olimpo Family Church from October 30th to November 2nd and accepted the Divine Principle and True Parents. Mr. Carlos mentioned in his reflection, "It was a very moving and wonderful time." He will be a precious supporter to us.

Mr. Iwasawa arrived at Asuncion, applied for a long-term visa with Mr. Nakai's help, and is waiting now.

Mr. Juan Carlos at the hall of the workshop center.

He is studying the Divine Principle through one-to-one lecture in the reception room from morning to evening.

The remodeling project for Mr. Kajikuri's bungalow is underway, using sand from the riverbed and old bricks from inventory to save money.

Mr. Carlos is enjoying feeding the capybaras.

Mr. Ueyama and Mr. Ohwada are explaining to Mr. Carlos about farming freshwater lobsters.

Mr. Kobashi is explaining to Mr. Carlos and Mr. Gavilan about pacu fish products.

Mr. Mizuochi is having difficulty building a high shelf in the refrigerator and freezer room in the farming area.

Pacu fish are frozen and stored by size. People from the barges and the marina often buy them. Mr. Ohwada sold 20 frozen pacu to people on a large cargo boat.