

2 Day Divine Principle Workshop

Reykjavik, Iceland, 6. – 8. December 2013

From the 6th to the 8th of December 13 for the first time after three years we held a 2 day WS outside of Reykjavik.

It was a challenge in terms of the weather, because it was unusually cold the days before and snowing was expected on Saturday. The WS site was 70 km away from Reykjavik and covered by a light layer of snow. There were two new guests, this is due to the fact that Icelanders engage themselves a lot in Xmas preparations and therefor only a few really have time. It was one 18 year old boy and one of our peace ambassadors who never had heard DP so far. We arrived at the site Friday night and prepared the room for the lectures the next day.

Paul Herman and I gave the contents of the 2 day seminar. Both guests were truly impressed and very moved by the whole contents. The food our wives prepared was very good as well as an break in which origami was taught to our PA who happens to be a teacher and very happy to have something new to teach during the art classes.

We shall see shortly what effects it will have on them, they admitted to never have heard such a contents. At the end we summarised True Fathers life course and showed a movie on True Mother's life. It marked the highlight and conclusion of a truly memorable time, which we plan to repeat one more time before the end of this year. Jónina Berg was especially moved by the lecture on spiritual growth and to see True Mothers work and leadership.
