

WFWP Stuttgart, Germany's Sai Baba: an Indian Holy Man and His Teachings

Ute Lemme
November 1, 2019

On Friday 1st November we held an event in the Stuttgart center, entitled: 'Report by Susanne Ritzau about Sai Baba: an Indian holy man and his teachings,' which attracted an audience of ten. Susanne Ritzau is a contact and friend of member Gabriele Schickert.

After refreshments, Gabriele opened the official program with a prayer. Susanne Ritzau had brought with her various books about Sai Baba and many cards with his words of wisdom. She told us how she had come to this movement and what meaning the teachings of Sai Baba have for her. It became clear that the wisdom of Sai Baba shares its core with all the world religions. Some of those present had already had experiences with Sai Baba and made lively contributions to the presentation.

After watching two interesting videos about the life and work of Sai Baba, we discussed many different topics, including the problems faced by migrants. Mrs. Moblei, one of our guests, told us about the problems experienced by a gypsy family who had felt at home in Germany but were deported back to Macedonia in a cloak and dagger operation. We gathered signatures and offered all the afternoon's donations to help this family.

Reported by Ute Lemme
WFWP Stuttgart/Germany