

Discussion Preparation for IFA Sunday Service with Rev. Matsuzaki, September 6

Hiroshi Matsuzaki
September 4, 2015

Hi again everyone,

The other evening we had a heartfelt sharing with Rev Matsuzaki about our small group discussion preparation for this coming Sunday. We decided that in order to gain the most from these sessions, it would be best to ask everyone to prepare questions, inspirations, or concerns ahead of time.

Therefore, we would ask you to do the following with a prayerful heart and mind:

- Reflect on our session theme of “Letting go and Letting Heaven” - Finding Heaven’s guidance through troubled times.
- Think about questions or experiences (good or bad) to share regarding this theme.
- Take some time to pray, prepare, and think about this Sunday session.

It is our sincere desire that through these small conditions of preparation for Sunday that you come to a deeper understanding of Heavenly Parents’ heart and desire for you and your family at this time

Looking forward to seeing you tomorrow.
