

WFWP Italy's UN International Day for Tolerance Project in Carini, Sicily

Gabriella Mieli
November 16, 2017

WFWP Italy together with the Christian Institute of Art and Sport and UPF Italy and San Marino co-sponsored the UN International Day for Tolerance within the project “Seeds of Peace” at the high school ITC Calderone in Carini, Sicily.

Through this celebration students, teachers, VIPs, religious representatives, members of different associations, immigrants, youths refugees and local authorities met together speaking about human rights, cohesion and peace in order to avoid hate and discrimination.

Maria Gabriella Mieli, Italian WFWP Vice-President explained to the audience the history and meaning of the UN International day Of Tolerance, the vision and mission of WFWP, the difference between tolerance and respect, concluding with the explanation of the Peace Road project, preparing everybody to organize a Peace Road march for next year, for the celebration of the 50th anniversary of Martin Luter King’s death.

During the event, the audience could appreciate an exhibition of a gospel choir, spiritual reflections by a Franciscan monk and an evangelic minister, followed by an overview of UPF principles made by Carlo Zonato (Italian UPF President) and the project “Football for Peace” presented by the director of the magazine “Voices of Peace”, Giorgio Gasperoni (UPF President in San Marino)

All the speakers were interviewed by a local tv broadcast. The local organizers then offered a nameplate of appreciation and a dinner party to celebrate the success of the event.

Reported by

M. Gabriella Mieli
WFWP Italy Vice President

