

WFWP Hungary's Women's Festival 2019 in Budapest

Parisa Nagy
March 9, 2019

On the occasion of UN Int'l Women's Day we had a great 'Women's Festival 2019' in Budapest, Hungary, on 9 March 2019 from 10 to 5pm. We started with a presentation about WFWP and its founder Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon. It was followed by 11 other presentations and performances. Most of the lecturers had previously been in challenging situations and they had turned their difficulties into opportunities to grow and changed their lives. Today they are working in their respective fields helping others to equally turn their problems into their strength. The topics were:

- Introduction of WFWP and Mother Dr. Hak Ja Ha Moon
- Trauma caused by violence in the family with an alternative way to heal
- Hungarian Reform Church representative who is dealing with women and youth's drug addiction
- Career advisor and business coach
- Win-Win communication
- Belly dance Performance
- "Internal Harmony in women, tender, but with stable power in life"
- Kriston Intim Exercise
- Magician performance
- Lottery
- Meditation

Reported by Parisa Nagy
WFWP Hungary President

