

Women working for Peace presented in near Caserta, in Campania, Italy

Elisabetta Nistri
June 25, 2016

On 25 June 2016, Elisabetta Nistri, WFP Italy President, was invited to present at an event organised by WFP member Hiroko Moriwaka, in her hometown, near Caserta, in Campania. The event was held at a theatre adjacent to the sanctuary church Madonna di Villa di Briano in Caserta.

The speakers were: Elisabeth Nistri, presenting “Women working for Peace”, Hiroko Della Corte, speaking about “The meaning of life on Earth”, and Bernadette Back who read her speech: “Flowers for life” dedicated to all women.

There were many people participating from the area and many had expressed a desire to participate and join in with other events and occasions.
